Children of the village support covers band Reloaded with their pom pom dancing along and supported the gala. the sun came out and it was a great success, raising over £2,800 for the playing fields, and providing a really good day out for everyone in the village and from further afield.

Along with the usual stalls, competitions and pub competitions, this year saw the PFA add to the event by inviting Jess Bannister and Reloaded to play on the 'Mick Richards' stage. This went down really well and the event carried on until darkness fell around 9.30pm!

Here are the thoughts of a couple of local families:

Gala." It wasn't the week away in the sunshine or the endless trips out. Instead, it was being free

Fox & Coney win the Pub Tug of War to play and buy sweets and cakes from the stalls and especially dancing with friends to fabulous music as the sun went down on a beautifully organised day. We can't wait till next year!"

Kirsten Ellis & Phil Wade: "We both felt the Gala was a great success. The stalls were good and the variety of food stuffs was a hit, as well as the bar! Oliver (aged 9) had a great time too and was there from 1.30pm until the end. The local radio was a good idea and the band at the end really finished the day on a high. Roll on next year!"

The PFA has decided to spend some of the funds it has raised on new goalposts, and renovating the changing rooms cabin to encourage and facilitate use of the football pitch. It will also look into getting some more smaller items of equipment for the playground area. It is still applying for funding to be able to do any substantial replacement and upgrading of the larger equipment.

Next event:
Carols on the Green on Christmas Eve.
